This technical drawing illustrates the design of a bookshelf system, 'MO-D_2-STUDIO'. It includes front, side, and detail views with precise dimensions in centimeters. The front view shows a modular system with two main vertical sections, each 188.0 cm high. The side view shows the depth of the shelves and the internal structure. The detail views show the various components and their assembly, including shelves, brackets, and fasteners. The drawing is labeled with 'X4', 'X5', and 'X2' to indicate the quantity of each part. The parts list on the right identifies the components and their quantities.
